

Who participates in the Olympics for the first time in history this year?

- A. Refugee team
- B. Triplets
- C. Lebanon national team

Feedback if answered correctly

Great, you got it right!

Lebanon national team have already participated in the Olympic Games.

This year the first ever refugee team takes part in the games in Rio, representing 65 million people by war and persecution. The ten athletes represent Syria, South Sudan, Ethiopia, and the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC).

Leila, Liina and Lily Luik, who are representing Estonia in the women's marathon in Rio, are the first triplets to have qualified for the Winter or Summer Games.

Feedback if answered wrong

Correct answers are A and B.

Lebanon national team have already participated in the Olympic Games.

This year the first ever refugee team takes part in the games in Rio, representing 65 million people by war and persecution. The ten athletes represent Syria, South Sudan, Ethiopia, and the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC).

Leila, Liina and Lily Luik, who are representing Estonia in the women's marathon in Rio, are the first triplets to have qualified for the Winter or Summer Games.

