Handy Reminder

One-Time Reminders

Life is so fast! There are so many tasks you should do from day to day... You should always keep in mind something important. How to deal with them? There are a lot of ways to solve this problem, but there is a simple way to track tasks and events in Confluence. All you need is the Handy Reminder macro from Handy Macros for Confluence.

Date	How does it work?
28 Jan 2030	One-time reminder
04 Apr 2020	One-time reminder that has already triggered

Periodic Reminders

But what if your task repeats every year? No problem, just create a periodic reminder!

Date	How does it work?
5 May	Remind once a year. Congratulate your friend or colleague on his or her birthday!
25 Jun	Remind once a month. Don't forget to send your monthly report!
25 Sep	Remind each work day. Don't miss your daily meeting!
16 Oct	Remind once a week, but stop reminding 16 Oct 2021. Remind yourself to send your weekly report until the end of the project.
25 Dec	Temporarily disabled reminder

Group Reminders

Need to remind your colleagues about something? It's very simple - just add individual users and groups as recipients. Click the reminder icon below and try to add "reminders" group to the list of recipients.
