

Track Course Results

Participants see their results after taking a course in a browser tab. Confluence users can view the results of courses they took in user profile.

A course author can track results of all participants in Reports tab on a course administration page.

Refer to Documentation to learn more about tracking quiz results.

You can take a sample course and take a look at your results at the report on Space Shuttle course administration page.

Ask us if you have any questions.
